Learn how to warp your own handheld loom, Single and multiple Tabby weaving, Rya Knots, Single and Double Soumak, Looped weaving, Weaving in weft ends and Knotting warp ends.

All materials are included. We will be working on wooden handheld looms, which are available to buy at the end of the class for an additional £10.

Discover Enfield's most important historic estate

A visit to Forty Hall is a must. With lots to see and do.

Discover the story of the beautifully refurbished Grade I Listed Hall including Sir Nicholas Rainton who built this magnificent home between 1629-32 and the subsequent families that once lived here. Encounter personal and architectural stories from the impressive past of this Jacobean Manor Hall and its Grade II Listed landscape.

The permanent exhibition reveals life at Forty Hall from Rainton who lived here until his death in 1646 to the Bowles and Parker-Bowles Family who were the Hall's last owners and residents in 1951.

Discover many treasures, including fashionable paint effects chosen by Rainton himself, hand-painted wallpaper and the stunning replica 17th century French bed. Admire the exquisite decorative architectural details in the original 17th Century ceilings, the bread oven in the 17th Century kitchen and the English Oak Grand Staircase. Marvel at the 18th Century paintings from the Museum of Enfield Collection that adorn the stunning period rooms including works by John Hill and William Yellowlees.

Enjoy an exhibition of photographs of the Bowles and Parker Bowles family that provide a unique insight into the lives of the last family to have lived at the Hall for over 50 years.

Explore the 79 acres of woodland and parkland at Forty Hall Estate and discover medieval fishing ponds, the Walled Garden, children's play area, Forty Hall Farm and lots more. Take a selfie with the giant 200 year old Cedar of Lebanon tree, admire the magnificent Magnolia tree on the Hall's south wall and enjoy this place of reinvention and personal memories in a story spanning nearly 400 years.

Jewellery Making Class

Bug Club - Wildflowers

SUNDAY 28th JULY, 10am -12 noon

Tickets: £5 in advance, £7 on the door.

Children must be accompanied by an adult (no ticket required).

Come and find out how to help our bees and other insects survive in the first of our two seasonal Bug Clubs for young inquisitive minds! Get outside with a magnifying glass and explore the varied insect habitats in the Walled Garden.

Use your worksheet to find and identify bee friendly plants and count how many pollinators can be found. Look for bees, ladybirds and other pollinators and then come inside to paint your own personalised pot! Finally plant wildflower seeds in your decorated pot to grow some bee friendly wildflowers.

Fun for all the family! Suitable for 4 -11 year olds

Don't forget to book onto the second Bug Club on Sunday 1st September.

Sun Pictures

SUNDAY 21st JULY, 10am - 1pm

Tickets: £40

All materials are provided on the day.

Artist: Rebecca Crossley

If you enjoy nature and image making, this three hour workshop is ideal for you. You will create your own camera-less photographic artwork using plants and botanical specimens found in a tour of the grounds at Forty Hall, and use the power of the sun to create your images.

Discover a little about the history of the process, and become familiar with some of the works of Fox Talbot, the inventor of the process. You will create at least two wonderful designs using plants and flowers, which will serve as a lasting souvenir of the event.

This workshop is for anyone who would like to explore this simple yet hugely creative archival photographic process. Beginners welcome.
